

SAVE THE DATE - September 30, 2015

Conference Center, GSU College of Law Building
Park Place and John Wesley Dobbs
Atlanta, Georgia 30303

Setting Sail with International Arbitration

A one-day conference commemorating the launch of the Atlanta Center for International Arbitration and Mediation

The Fourth Annual Conference of the Atlanta International Arbitration Society, offered in conjunction with the Atlanta Center for International Arbitration and Mediation

Keynote Speaker: William W. Park, Professor of Law, Boston University and President of the London Court of International Arbitration

International Faculty

Other Topics:

- Outfitting for our Cruise: The AtlAS story, ACIAM, Attracting International Arbitration Business to Atlanta, Building an International Arbitration Practice
- Smooth Sailing: Negotiating, Drafting and Revising the Arbitration Agreement with a View Toward Enforcement, Sample Clauses, Selecting the Right Seat and Choosing the Right Rules, Limitations on the Ability to Contract for Arbitration
- Rough Weather Ahead: Preserving the Right to Arbitrate, Compelling Arbitration, Jurisdictional Challenges, Interlocutory Relief, Third Party Practices
- Lull Before the Storm: Pre-Hearing Conferences, Motions, Disclosure—Discovery
- The Storm Breaks and Passes: The Hearing, The IBA Rules on Taking of Evidence, Award, Enforcement, Finding and Recovering Assets and Annulment

Registration and Additional Details Coming Soon

Arrangements for hotel accommodations are being made with the Ritz-Carlton in downtown Atlanta
Approval of CLE credit is pending

Partners:

Mayor's Office of International Affairs