American Society of International Law

ASIL Midyear Meeting
October 19 – 21, 2012
Atlanta and Athens, Georgia

The American Society of International Law's third annual Midyear Meeting and Research Forum, hosted by ASIL Academic Partner University of Georgia School of Law, will be held October 19-21, 2012, in Atlanta and Athens. The Midyear Meeting and Research Forum are for legal practitioners, scholars, judges, and others interested in international law.

This year's meeting will consist of a CLE program and reception for practitioners in Atlanta on Friday, October 19 titled, “When Transnational Business Deals Go Sour: The Challenges and Opportunities of International Arbitration.” Focusing on recent developments in the field as well as real-world case studies of arbitration's success and failure, the program will be moderated by Glenn Hendrix of Arnall Golden & Gregory and will feature a panel of distinguished practitioners and academics in the field:

- Ms. Valerie Strong Sanders: Counsel with Sutherland Asbill & Brennan's Litigation Practice Group
- Professor Jack Goldsmith: Henry J. Shattuck Professor at Harvard Law School; and former Assistant Attorney General in the Office of Legal Counsel.
- Professor Larry D. Thompson: John A. Sibley Professor in Corporate and Business Law at the University of Georgia School of Law; former Deputy Attorney General of the United States; and former General Counsel at PepsiCo.
- Mr. Gary Born: Partner and Chair of the International Arbitration Practice Group with Wilmer Cutler Pickering Hale & Dorr
- Professor David D. Caron: Immediate Past-president of the American Society of International Law; and the C. William Maxeiner Distinguished Professor of Law at the University of California at Berkeley.
- Mr. Donald Francis Donovan: President of the American Society of International Law; and Partner at Debevoise & Plimpton.

On October 20-21, the meetings move to Athens for Society leaderships meetings, a career fair, keynotes, and the Research Forum for discussion of academic works-in-progress.

The mission of the American Society of International Law is to foster the study of international law and to promote the establishment and maintenance of international relations on the basis of law and justice. Convening the international law community throughout the United States and the rest of the world is an important priority for the Society—to serve its far-flung members, and also to reach growing new constituencies of international law within the bar and the judiciary, among representatives of the media, and in the general public.
